

Cuningar Loop

Downiebrae Rd,
Rutherglen, Glasgow
G73 1PW

From Edinburgh

Follow M8 towards Glasgow

At junction 8, take the M73 exit to M74/Carlisle/Glasgow(S)/Glasgow Airport

Follow signs for M74

At junction 2, take the A724 exit to Rutherglen/Dalmarnock

Continue on Cambuslang Rd/A724 to your destination

From Glasgow

Follow M74 for Carlisle

Take exit 2 from M74 Rutherglen/Cambuslang

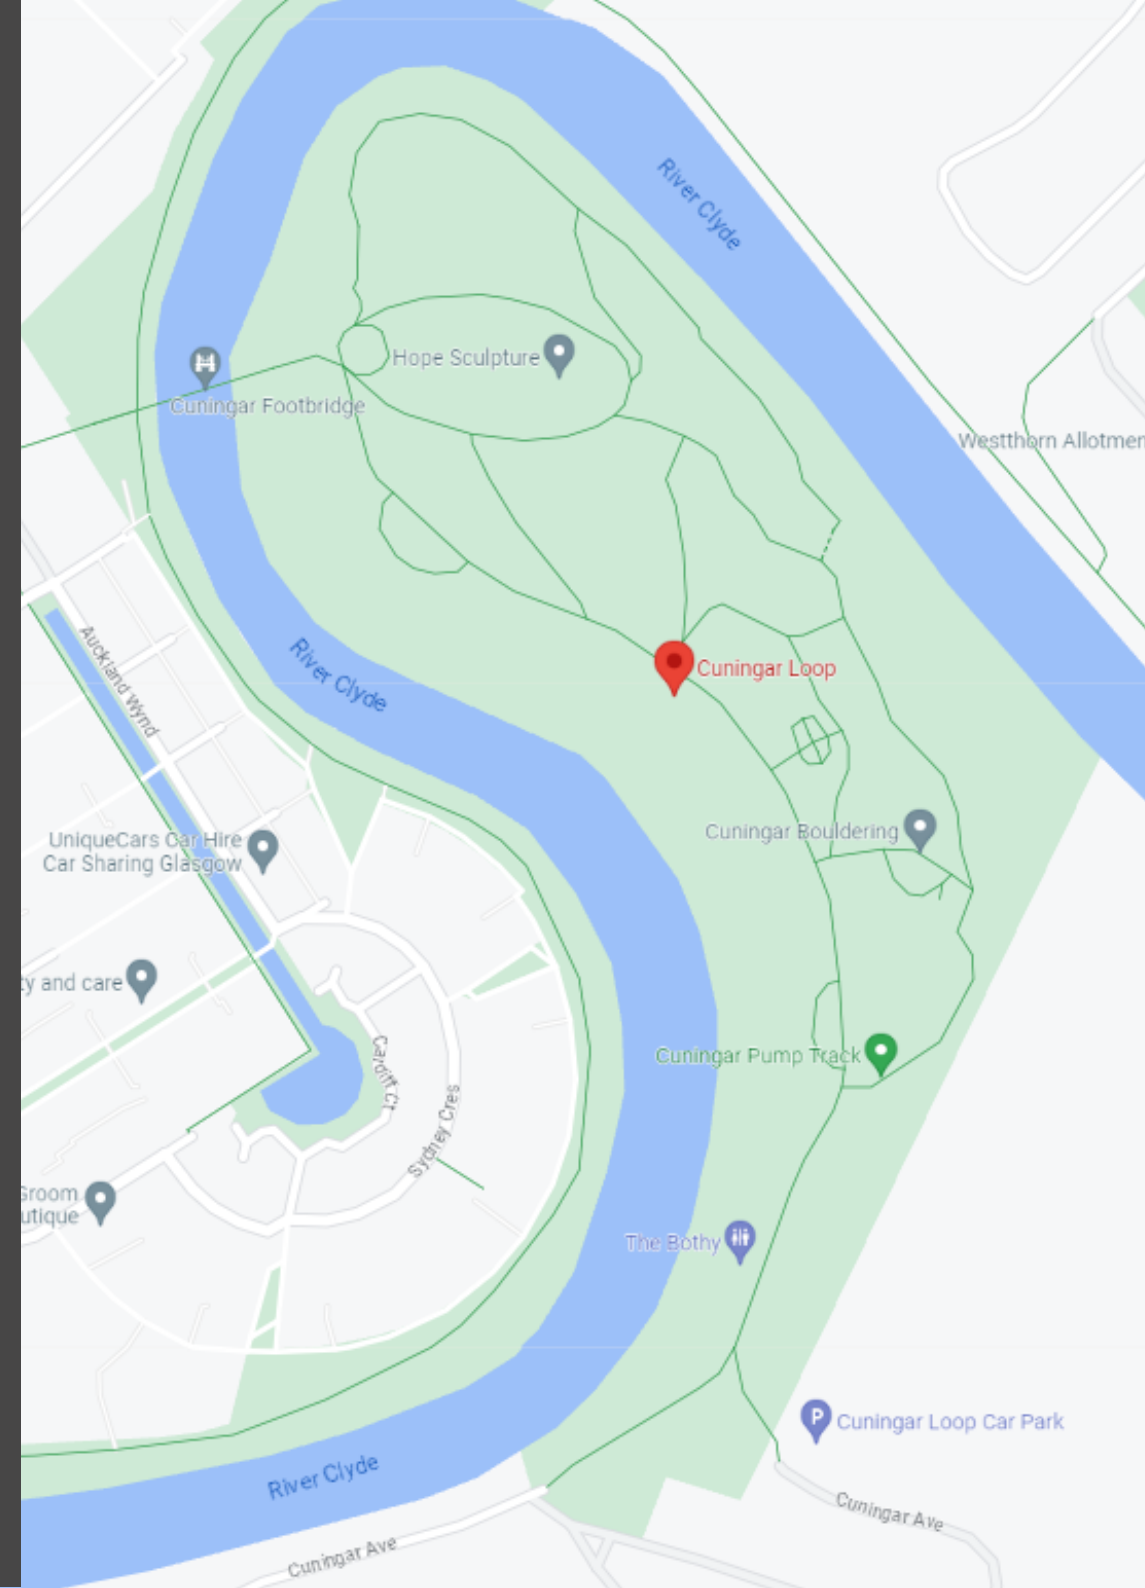

Continue on Cambuslang Rd/A724 to your destination

Car Park Opening Times

April - September: 7am - 9pm

October - March: 8am - 7pm

Connectivity That Really Works

The Clyde Walkway (part of National Cycle Route 75) passes the Cuningar Footbridge. People Make Glasgow bikes available at Dalmarnock Station

Cuningar Loop is a 10 min walk from both Dalmarnock & Rutherglen train stations

There are regular buses between Glasgow and Rutherglen which run along Dalmarnock Road

For more information visit:
<https://forestryandland.gov.scot/visit/cuningar-loop>

The Bothy

The Bothy is multi-functional space for both community and business use.

The facility includes a community meeting space with toilets, changing facilities and cycle storage.

The best place to park for access to The Bothy is on Downiebrae Road. From there walk up Cuningar Avenue which provides direct access to the park. Once in the park you will pass through the Evolve sculpture (image below) and The Bothy will be on your left-hand side.

Please allow for ten minutes from parking on Downiebrae Road to reaching The Bothy.

The Bothy

Car Park